As the Consultation Authorities have now expressed their views on the proposed scope and level of detail of the report, you should refer to the Regulations to consider what your next step should be. You should of course take into account the opinions offered by the Consultation Authorities.

Note, in accordance with Regulation 17(3) of the Environmental Assessment of Plans and Programmes (Scotland) Regulations 2004, (when agreed) you are required to formally write to advise the Scottish Ministers of the period of consultation you intend to specify, both for the public and the Consultation Authorities.
