

LANDSLIDE ON THE BRAAN PATH – PATH CLOSED

There has been a landslide on the Braan path between the Inver car park and the Hermitage, close to the bridge over the River Braan.

The path is likely to remain closed for some time while the Forestry Commission undertake an initial investigation of the area and draw up plans for a possible repair.

It is possible to take an alternative route through Inver as shown on the map below.

