Company Perth & Kinross Council

- Aims
- Enable staff to recognise that a child or young person may need help or protection from harm.
  - Inform participants of how to respond appropriately to a concern raised about or by a child or young person.
  - Heighten awareness about good practice in sharing information about children and young people at risk and in need of protection.

- Outcomes
- Enhanced confidence in responding appropriately when a concern is raised about a child or young person within their own agency.
  - Appreciation and understanding of the policy and procedure relating to the sharing of information about children deemed to be at risk.
  - Ability to recognise the signs and symptoms that children may be in need of help or protection from harm.
  - Engagement in networking and increase professional competence and confidence in child care and protection work.
