

Scotland-wide Free Bus Concession Travel for Older & Disabled People

Proof of Residence

You must be a resident of Scotland and will be required to provide one of the following forms of evidence for verification purposes. Your name and a Scottish residential address must be clearly stated on the document:

- Council Tax Bill (from the current financial year)
- Recent Utilities Bill (e.g. gas, electricity, landline telephone bill) – issued in the last 3 months
- Recent Bank Statement – issued in the last 3 months ('Care of' addresses on the bank statement are not sufficient)
- UK Driving licence
- Television Licence stating address and applicants name
- Letter from care or residential home clearly stating the name of the individual and the period of time they have been resident in the home.
- Letter from local authority confirming that the applicant is resident at an address within that Council area.
- Where the applicant is a child - Child Benefit award letter stating the child's name and address the child is resident at.