PHOTOGRAPHY/VIDEO/COPYRIGHT CONSENT FOR SCHOOL PUPILS

Data Protection legislation has implications for schools as well as other areas of society. Child Protection guidelines also affect school practice. Some schools capture images using a camera, either still or video, within the classroom, on educational outings or at school events. Group and individual photos give a flavour of school life and enhance the publications concerned. Children are also pleased to see their pictures used in this way.

Photographs and videos of pupils may be used in a number of ways. Most pupils over 12 can consent to their image being used, providing they have the capacity to do so. A person with parental capacity can give consent for the use of images for a child under 12, or over 12 without capacity.

I give permission for photographs and videos of me/my child taken at this school to be used as stated below. Please tick (✓) the appropriate box for each category	Yes	No
School handbooks, School/Council newsletters, Council publications, Council exhibitions, School/Council websites*, School/Council social media sites* (eg Facebook, Twitter etc), plasma screens* and Council exhibition material
Kept indefinitely for use by the Council's Museum, Library or Archives as part of their collections
Press coverage of events linked to the school or to the Council

Children are never fully identified on websites, social media or on plasma screen displays. Two years after pictures or videos are taken, they will be deleted by the school. However, you should be aware that websites and social media are viewed by a world-wide audience and the Council cannot prevent pictures being copied and used by others.*

If you are unhappy about your child's image being captured for the purposes outlined above, there will be times when he/she is asked to come out of a group or class picture, in order that the image can be taken.

COPYRIGHT APPROVAL

Children's work is often displayed in the classroom and school corridors in order to promote their individual and collective work. In addition, this type of material is often displayed in other Council buildings as part of exhibitions.

I give permission for any of my/my child's creative work to be exhibited by the School or Local Authority as stated above. Please tick (✓) the appropriate box	Yes	No
