NOTES

Information on the Licensing (Scotland) Act 2005 is available on the website of the Scottish Parliament
(<http://www.opsi.gov.uk/legislation/scotland/acts2005/20050016.htm>)

1. Change of name or address

Section 88 of the Licensing (Scotland) Act 2005 requires that a personal licence holder must, no later than one month after any change in the licence holder's name or address, give the Licensing Board which issues the licence notice of the change. It is an offence not to do so.

2. Licensing qualifications

Licensing qualifications are dealt with in section 91 of the Licensing (Scotland) Act 2005. In summary, to be eligible for a personal licence, an applicant must be aged 18 or over and possess a licensing qualification, and no personal licence previously held by the applicant must have been revoked within the period of 5 years ending with the day on which the application was received by the Licensing Board.

3. Photographs

One of the photographs submitted with your application should be endorsed on the back. This endorsement should contain the words “I certify that this is a true likeness of (name of applicant)”, followed by the full name of the person endorsing the photograph.

4. Convictions

Section 75 of the Act places a duty on an applicant for a personal licence to notify the Licensing Board if he or she has been convicted of any relevant or foreign offence during the time between making the application and the application being determined by the Licensing Board. Furthermore, section 82 of the Act requires personal licence holders to notify their Licensing Board of any convictions for relevant or foreign offences within one month of the licence holder being convicted.
