What specialist skills or experience can you offer?

I have five years intensive experience caring for a lady with Parkinson's Disease. Duties included domestic, food preparation, medicine administration, toileting and bathing as well as companionship. Prior to this, I looked after clients with conditions including Multiple Sclerosis, Cerebral Palsy, Limbic Rage Brain Injury and Stroke.

What are your hobbies and interests?

I am a musician by education and training. I am also a story teller and can cook well. I am a horn-player and played in several orchestras at one time or another. I also love reading books, have good general knowledge and a wry sense of humour. I also like writing and stargazing. and I'm currently learning to paint water-colours.
