

Perth & Kinross Childcare Strategy - Training Course Outlines

Building the Ambition	The aim of this session is to provide - Information on:- the Building the Ambition documentation; why the document exists; attachment An understanding of:- new terminology; what play and learning is; what quality is
Child Protection Basic Awareness	An evening session that will give a basic overview of the procedures and the processes used in child protection.
Creating an effective learning environment	An evening session which will outline current understanding of what constitutes a good learning environment and will offer staff an opportunity to review their own setting and consider how to adapt and change the environment to meet children's needs.
Exploring Child Protection Further	An evening session to further develop participants' knowledge of child protection with a range of practical exercises.
GIRFEC	Getting it right for every child, a session in relation to GIRFEC.
Leadership and Management Skills	An evening session looking at leadership and management designed to give aspiring managers tools and guidance in order to develop their management role.
Practical Play	An evening providing a range of practical play experiences both indoors and outdoors that can be created from a limited budget
Practical Strategies to Support Children with Social Communication Difficulties	An evening session which will give an overview of the characteristics of social communication difficulties and offer practical strategies and problem solving advice to support children experiencing these difficulties.
Pre Birth to Three training	This evening session will enhance confidence and understanding of Pre Birth to Three Guidance and will provide practical examples of Pre Birth to Three principles and key features in practice.
Risk In Play	An evening session that looks at risk, health and safety and risk assessments along with measuring the benefits of play and risk together.
ROSPA Approved Food Safety Level	Online course
Self Regulation (Behaviour Strategies)	A session outlining a framework for supporting children who are experiencing behaviour difficulties, to enable them to regulate themselves to the greatest extent possible whilst taking on board your own knowledge and experience