Book of Remembrance

The Book of Remembrance, displayed in a purpose-built cabinet in the Chapel of Remembrance, has been provided to offer a dignified memorial in perpetuity. The Chapel itself is open to visitors between:

9.00 am - 5.00 pm

Monday to Friday

For weekends and public holidays, the Book of Remembrance will be on view at the main doors of the Crematorium.

The Book of Remembrance has a separate page for each day. The pages are turned on a daily basis so that the lasting record appears at each anniversary according to the date chosen. The Book itself is handmade and bound in the finest gold-tooled vellum. Each entry is an example of calligraphic excellence, worthy of the quality and importance of the volume and a fitting tribute to the memory of the deceased.

In addition the following emblems may be included in the Book of Remembrance:

Emblem*, Family Crest*, Coat of Arms*

(* only permitted with 5 or 8-line entry)

The facsimile entries shown in this brochure illustrate examples of the standard and attractiveness of the workmanship. Two, five and eight-line entries can be chosen and the latter two options offer the opportunity of highlighting an association through the addition of a colourful motif, badge or crest:

Renewal of all leases for further period - 75% of lease cost.

Memorial Cards

Facsimile entry in a quality card:
 The Memorial card replicates the cover of the Book of Remembrance and reproduces the entry, but in a card cover only. Both options offer a highly personal memorial which can be kept at hand.

Miniature Book

The Miniature Book is a replica of the Book of Remembrance and contains a facsimile entry and tasteful photographs of features of the Crematorium.
 The bound miniature book contains colour photographs and replica of the Book of Remembrance entry:

In addition, the following may be included in the Memorial Card and Miniature Book:

- Photograph, Family Crest,
- Coat of Arms
- (* only permitted with 5 or 8-line entry)
