What specialist skills or experience can you offer?

My career, to date, has revolved around supporting and empowering people in many ways. I am passionate about helping others lead their lives on their terms, and have shown this by my work with the Disability Information Service, Sheltered Housing and Independent Advocacy. I have provided information and advice and supported clients at meetings which contributes to them leading more comfortable, fulfilling lives.

What are your hobbies and interests?

I am a volunteer with the Royal Voluntary Service and I am about to re-train to become a Citizen's Advice advisor. I love the countryside and all things nature related. I walk or cycle every day and would be able to teach basic IT skills. I am energetic and sporty and keen on badminton and bowling, though I will try anything once! I am an animal lover and have three cats to look after.
