

PERTH AND KINROSS INTEGRATION JOINT BOARD (IJB)

Guide to information available through the Model Publication Scheme

The Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 (The Act) requires Scottish Public Authorities to adopt and maintain a publication scheme. Authorities are under a legal obligation to:

- Publish the classes of information that they make routinely available
- Tell the public how to access the information and what it might cost, if applicable

Perth & Kinross Integration Joint Board (IJB) has adopted the Model Publication Scheme (The MPS), which was produced and approved by the Scottish Information Commissioner on 31 May 2017.

You can see this scheme on the Commissioner's website at www.itspublicknowledge.info/MPS or by contacting us at the address below if you prefer a copy to be provided to you in another format.

The purpose of this Guide to Information is to:

- Allow you to see what information is available (and what is not available) in relation to each class;
- State what charges may be applied;
- Explain how you can find the information easily;
- Provide contact details for enquiries and to get help with accessing the information; and
- Explain how to request information we hold that has not been published

In instances where the IJB does not hold the information requested, we will work with applicants to ensure they are directed the correct authority.

Published information

Please note that "published" information can be defined as information which is:

- i. Already produced and prepared and
- ii. Available to anyone to access easily without having to make a request for it

Research and information services which involve the commissioning of new information are not "publications"

The Guide to Information is split into following six sections:

1. Availability and formats
2. Exempt information
3. Copyright and re-use

4. Charges
5. Contact details; and
6. The classes of information that we publish

SECTION 1 – AVAILABILITY AND FORMATS

The information we publish through the publication scheme is, wherever possible, available on our website. We offer alternative arrangements for people who do not want to, or cannot, access the information either online or by inspection at our premises. For example, we can usually arrange to send information to you in paper copy (although there may be a charge for this – see charges below).

SECTION 2 – EXEMPT INFORMATION

We will publish the information we hold that falls within the classes of information below. If a document contains information that is exempt under Scotland's freedom of information laws (for example sensitive personal information or a trade secret), we may remove or redact (blank out) the information before publication and explain why we have done so.

SECTION 3 – COPYRIGHT AND RE-USE

Where the IJB holds the copyright in its published information, the information may be copied or reproduced without formal permission, provided that:

- It is copied or reproduced accurately;
- It is not used in a misleading context; and
- The source of the material is identified

Where the IJB does not hold the copyright in information we publish, we will make this clear.

Requests for published information to be re-used will be considered on a case by case basis in line with the Re-Use of Public Sector Information Regulations 2015.

SECTION 4 – CHARGES

This section explains when we may make a charge for our publications and how any charge will be calculated. There is no charge to view information on our website or at our premises.

We may charge for providing information to you, e.g. photocopying and postage, but we will charge you no more than it actually costs us to do so. We will always tell you what the cost is before providing the information to you.

Our photocopying charge per side of paper is shown in the tables below

Black and white photocopying

Size of paper	Pence per sheet of paper
A3	15p
A4	10p

Colour photocopying

Size of paper	Pence per sheet of paper
A3	25p
A4	20p

Information provided on CD-Rom will be charged at £1.00 per computer disc.

Postage costs will be recharged at the rate we pay to send the information to you. Our charge is for sending information by Royal Mail First Class post.

When providing copies of pre-printed publications, we will charge no more than the cost per copy of the total print run.

We do not pass any other costs on to you in relation to our published information.

This charging schedule does not apply to our commercial publications (see Class 8 below). These items are offered for sale through retail outlets such as book shops, academic journal websites or museum shops and their price reflects a 'market value' which may include the cost of production.

SECTION 5 – CONTACT DETAILS

The Integration Joint Board is made up of local elected members, non executive members of NHS Tayside Board, Third Sector representatives and officials from NHS Tayside and Perth & Kinross Council.

Gordon Paterson is the Chief Officer for the IJB and can be contacted using the details below:
