What specialist skills or experience can you offer?

I have experience in both mental and physical healthcare. I have experience with complex mental health illnesses and dementia care. I have experience of working in busy ward environments and step down hospital care. I am first aid, basic life support training and up-to-date moving & handling certification. I have experience with specialist equipment for clients with specific needs.

What are your hobbies and interests?

I am local to the Crieff area and I am currently in my final year at Dundee University studying Mental Health Nursing which I am extremely passionate about. I have plenty of experience working within a care setting and enjoy spending time with others. In my spare time I like to walk my two small dogs or go running. I am a kind, compassionate and honest individual looking forward to providing quality care.
