

COVID-19 Outdoor Access Guidance

The Rights of Responsible Access still apply – but please follow the Scottish Outdoor Access Code and the latest Scottish Government Advice:

- You can now go outside to exercise as often as you like - Walk, run or cycle, alone or with members of your household. Cyclists and runners – when passing others please call ahead and be prepared to give way so that social distancing is maintained.
- Stay local - please avoid travelling unnecessarily by car to take exercise; please make use of the paths, open spaces and quiet roads in your own local area
- Keep your distance – please stay at least 2 metres away from people other than your household and if possible, try to avoid busy times on popular paths or places
- Avoid contact - try to avoid touching surfaces and if possible, plan a route that does not require you to open gates
- Dogs – please put them on a lead or keep them close at heel and do not let them approach other people or livestock
- Respect the health and safety of farmers and others working the land – please follow all reasonable requests and signs to avoid particular areas, such as farmyards, fields with pregnant or young livestock, and other busy working areas
