

To reduce the spread of COVID-19, the Scottish Government has made some new rules

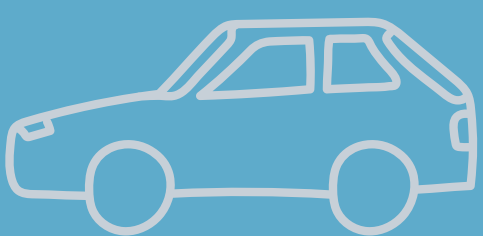

These restrictions include:

Visiting other households indoors will not be permitted.

From Friday 25th September, pubs, bars and restaurants will be required to close at 10pm.

Advice against car sharing with people outside your own household everyone who can work from home, should work from home.

The Scottish Government has also announced financial support of £500 for those on low incomes who are required to self-isolate.
