1) All applications must be accompanied by the appropriate fee. As noted above, fees will be checked at the point of validation. 2) The additional gross floor space created by the development must be clearly indicated in square metres on the submitted plan. For the purposes of the fee regulations, gross floor space includes all storeys, is measured externally including the thickness of internal and external walls and can include areas under canopies. 3) The area of the site must be clearly stated in hectares on the application form and the submitted plan. 4) There is no provision in the regulations for the refund of fees paid to Planning Authorities in respect of applications which have been validated. Invalid or incomplete applications will have fees returned if paid. 5) This is not a comprehensive list of fees. If in doubt, please contact the Duty Planning Officer on 01738 475300 or email developmentmanagement@pkc.gov.uk. A copy of the Town and Country Planning (Fees for Applications) (Scotland) Regulations 2022 (as amended) is also available to view online. 6) Pre-application advice and pre-validation checks may be offered by external planning consultants but may not adhere to advice and validation checks provided/accepted by Perth and Kinross Council. 7) One opportunity will be given to address invalidity issues prior to returning any application, where an application is returned, a handling and administration fee will be retained. 8) All applications are now required to be submitted online, all applications submitted either on paper copy or via email will be subject to an additional handling and administration fee. 9) The statutory maximum charge allowable for these discretionary fees is set by Scottish Government legislation and may be subject to annual change mid-year. In line with our financial principles, we may implement these, up to as much as the statutory maximum fee, at the same implementation date as all statutory fee changes.

The fee to register as a private landlord with a single local authority is £82 + £19 per property. Late penalty fee is £164.
PROFESSIONAL FEES Fees are placed at a level which reflects the fact that the Council wants to attract business. The Council only recover fees where the transaction involves a third party (e.g. lease/servitude) and it is reasonable to recover them from the third party.
PROPERTY SALES Any fee is agreed with Estates which is then deducted off the capital receipt.
SECTION 75 The Council charge £500 which is broadly in line with other Councils. This is notified to the other party at the start of the transaction and recovered at the end of the transaction before the planning consent is issued.
