

Comrie Flood Protection Scheme – Progress Photographs

March 2025

First sheet pile installed at Strowan Road - these piles will provide a below ground seepage barrier and be cut down below road level (10 March 2025)

Formation of base level for flood wall at Strowan Road (31 March 2025)

April 2025

Preparation of wall reinforcement prior to concrete pouring at Strowan Road (8 April 2025)

Concrete pour for reinforced flood wall at Strowan Road (11 April 2025)

Installation of first steel sheet-pile at Aros Field (30 April 2025)

Artificial otter holt installed to replace habitat affected by construction works

May 2025

Installation of temporary construction vehicle bridge over R. Lednock (6 May 2025)

Formation of first section of reinforced concrete flood wall at Strowan Road, with seepage cut off piles to the rear (to be cut down below road level) (6 May 2025)

View downstream from Dalginross Bridge (6 May 2025)

Steel sheet piles at Aros field looking west - these form the core of the new flood embankment (6 May 2025)

Steel sheet piles at Aros field looking north to Camp Road - these form the core of the new flood embankment (6 May 2025)