Hello. Thank you for your notification. I feel helpless about McDonald's appeal. In this small town with only 11,248 inhabitants, there are already 5 fish and chips shops (four of which include Chinese restaurants), 3 Indian and Turkish restaurants, as well as Wetherspoon, Subway, and other restaurants and cafes. Given the current dire economic climate, opening another McDonald's would only exacerbate the situation. Furthermore, fast food only contributes to the obesity and other unhealthy problems among some young people. I hope the authorities uphold the original ruling. Thank you.
